ALLEGATIONS

Complaint Type classified as "CR" Sworn affidavit on file.

The reporting party alleged that the responding officers falsified their report regarding a sexual assault/rape in that the accused officers did not put the correct address of [REDACTED], Basement where she was raped but had used a street named [REDACTED]. The accused officers failed to identify themselves to her when she asked for their names and star numbers. The reporting party alleged that the accused female/detective informed her that she was going to correct the case report but she never did. The reporting party further alleged that the Detective Supervisor refused to listen to her and investigate the sexual assault. The accused supervisor told her to "Shut up and listen" and was rude and unprofessional towards her. The reporting party further alleged that the accused supervisor refused to provide his name upon request. RD# [REDACTED]

SUMMARY

On 28 Nov 11, complainant [REDACTED] appeared at headquarters where she had difficulty staying on course with the interview. Her statements were illogical and delusional. She stated that about a week and half after being raped, a detective informed her that the case report indicated she had been raped at a house on [REDACTED] she told them she knew nothing about a house on [REDACTED] and said that she was raped at [REDACTED] changed topic stating that the police never came, to an alleged incident at the Benjamin [REDACTED] stated she had demonic spirits chasing her and unexplained deaths of family members.

A review of the General Offense Case Report revealed that [REDACTED] was battered by a friend after she refused to have sex with him at [REDACTED] She was transported to St. Bernard Hospital by CFD #14, treated, and released.

In that [REDACTED]'s thoughts appeared to be unstable, coupled with her pattern of reporting 74 police victim/offense incident, the undersigned recommends that this complaint be not sustained.
